

EXHIBIT B

If you donated money to Gospel for Asia, a class action lawsuit may affect you.

There is a pending lawsuit against Gospel for Asia, Inc. (“GFA”) that claims that Gospel for Asia misdirected funds designated for specific charitable projects the donors selected. The Court has not yet made a ruling in this matter.

Am I involved? You may be a member of the class if you donated to Gospel for Asia, Inc. from January 1, 2009 to September 10, 2018 and live in the United States. Current or former employees of GFA may be excluded. Visit www.gfaaction.com or call 1-xxx-xxx-xxxx for more information.

Do I need an attorney? The court has appointed lawyers to represent the class members in this lawsuit. You will not be obligated to pay any expenses or costs. You may hire your own attorney, at your own expense.

What are my options? If you want to be a class member, you do not need to do anything at this time. You will be automatically included unless you exclude yourself by Month Day, Year. If you exclude yourself, you will not be eligible for any benefits if any become available, but you will not be bound by the decisions of the Court and you will keep your right to sue GFA for the claims involved in this lawsuit. Complete details on your options are available www.gfaaction.com.
